

Communication Technologies Terms and Conditions WOLF VILLAGE

NC State University / Please read this document carefully

I. Term of Contract:
Phone Services
This contract is effective for optional local service, features and long distance service from the date the subscriber signs it, either physically or electronically, and remains in effect as long as a valid "Residence Hall Agreement" is in effect or until the subscriber submits a "Request for Change" form canceling service.

Cable Services
This contract is effective for optional cable services and features from the date the subscriber signs it, physically or electronically, and remains in effect through the current semester as long as a valid "Residence Hall Agreement" is in effect or until the subscriber submits a "Request for Change", either via paper form or by the ComTech website, canceling service.

Residents may apply for optional services at the ComTech Web site (<http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>). A cutoff date of one month after the first day of the semester is currently in place. After that time students will not be able to cancel their service until the following semester.

Common Rooms
Cable television service is automatically provided in the living room of each Wolf Village apartment. Students equally split the charge for these services.

Common Room Rates
Cable Television - $45.25/person

Optional Service Rates
Cable Television - $80.00/semester
Local Phone + Phone Features - $67.00/semester

Once this contract is signed in association with the establishment of an initial "Residence Hall Agreement", the subscriber's electronic signature which is used to establish "Residence Hall Agreement" in succeeding years also binds the subscriber to a renewal of the terms of this agreement as long as the new "Residence Hall Agreement" or Greek Court housing commitment is effective, unless the telephone agreement is otherwise canceled.

Subscriber will be liable for all charges incurred up to and including the date of cancellation. If a subscriber's "Residence Hall Agreement" is cancelled or terminated, and subscriber later enters into a subsequent "Residence Hall Agreement" then a new contract must be completed and resubmitted in order to obtain telephone service from the University.

Subscribers are responsible for notifying Communication Technologies of cancellation of service via the ComTech Web site (<http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>). Failure to notify ComTech will result in continued charges for service.

Chapter 14: A copy of the State of North Carolina Utilities Commission Chapter 14 A is available for viewing at the Communication Technologies office in the West Dunn Building between 8 AM - 5 PM Monday through Friday. The forms are also viewable on the ComTech Web site. A copy of Chapter 14 A will be provided free of charge upon request of the subscriber.

II. Acceptance of This Agreement: New student's optional services will be connected only after the student signs up for services through the ComTech Web site (<http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>).

The new student's signature on the Communication Technologies' Application Form or completion and electronic signature via the Web binds the student to this Communication Technologies Terms and Conditions Agreement and signifies that the student has received, read and agrees to abide by all conditions, terms and policies contained in the Terms and Conditions Agreement.

Collection Procedures: Amounts owed for services applied under this agreement may, if necessary, be collected through procedures established by the Communication Technologies Office including but not limited to termination of service, withholding transcripts, registration, and diplomas.

III. Fees: The following fees are applicable to this service - - - Returned Check Fee $20

IV. Repair Charges: Charges for repair visits as a result of equipment failure in subscriber-provided equipment will be billed to the subscriber at $40.00 per hour.

V. Damages: The subscriber will be assessed a fee based on time and materials for the repair of any damages to University telephone and/or cable facilities with a minimum charge of $100.00 per incident.

VI. Inquiries/Complaints: Inquiries or complaints regarding any aspect of the service may be addressed to: B.J. Attarian, Student Services, Communication Technologies Office, Campus Box 7217, Raleigh, NC 27695-7217 or made by telephone to (919) 515-7099, option 1 (5-7099 on campus). Unresolved complaints may be directed to the Utilities Commission, Consumer Services Division, 4326 Mail Service Ctr., Raleigh, NC 27699-4326, telephone (919) 733-9277.

VII. Breach of Contract: This contract shall be violable at the option of the subscriber and without further liability to the subscriber if the contract is breached by NC STATE UNIVERSITY. This contract may be terminated by NC STATE UNIVERSITY upon the subscriber's breach of contract. Subscriber will be liable for all charges incurred up to the date of breach.

VIII. Telephones: Telephone service is an optional service at NC State University. Each student must provide his/her own TOUCH-TONE telephone.

The selected long distance carrier for NC State University residence halls is Mobilesphere and more information on the long distance plan, including its Terms and Conditions, is available at the ComTech Web site (<http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>).

Calling Cards/DSL: It is prohibited for anyone to receive a calling card/DSL service that is associated with a 512 number. All 512 numbers are owned by NC State University and cannot be used for personal calling cards or DSL service. Students will be charged for amount of the bill plus research time if caught using calling cards/DSL service charged to a 512 number.

Phone Features: Phone features (call waiting, call return, three-way calling, voice mail and Caller ID) are included as part of the local telephone service. Students may apply for telephone service via the ComTech Web site (<http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>). A cutoff date of one month after the first day of the semester is currently in place. After that time students will not be able to cancel their service until the following semester.

Rates: New and returning subscribers will receive written notice of the applicable rates 30 days prior to the beginning of each academic year. Directory assistance calls will be billed at $.65 each.

New rates are available to subscribers through the Web site "<http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>", packets provided to subscribers during check in, mailings provided to all new and continuing subscribers, and handouts available at any time in the Communication Technologies Office.

These rates, charges, payment arrangements, rules on disconnection, and deposit requirements are not regulated by the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

Rate Changes: Communication Technologies has implemented Expanded Area Calling, enabling calls to Durham, Chapel Hill, Cary and other cities to be made as local calls. A complete listing of towns available within the new calling area is available at the Web site <http://comtech.ncsu.edu/students>.

During an academic year at least thirty days written notice will be given prior to any rate increase. If Communication Technologies receives less than thirty days notice of a rate increase, notice shall be given as soon as possible.

Directory Listings: Subscribers are responsible for providing directory information and authorizing or withholding publication in the campus telephone directory by contacting the Registration and Records office.

Emergency Service: Enhanced 911 emergency service (E911), which permits automatic identification of the caller and the caller's location, is available through the University's telephone system. Persons calling 5-3333 from campus will reach the University's Public Safety department which handles all emergencies for the campus. If 911 is dialed, the call is first routed to Wake County and then back to the University's Public Safety department. Depending on the caller's location, the caller may need to provide his/her identification and location to the Public Safety officer or the 911 operator.

Cable: Each student must provide his/her own television.

Responsible Party: Cable charges will be evenly split between the four roommates for all common rooms. In the event that a roommate moves from the apartment and that roommate is not replaced the remaining roommates are not responsible for the vacating roommate's portion of the charges. Optional service is the responsibility of the student that applies for the service.

Rate Changes: Rates will not change within any academic year. At least thirty days written notice will be given prior to any rate increase. If Communication Technologies receives less than thirty days notice of a rate increase, notice shall be given as soon as possible.

Payment of Bill: The subscriber(s) will be fully responsible for the payment of all charges. The semester fee will appear on the University Cashiers office bill as a separate line item. The semester bill is to be paid in full by the due date specified. Payments are to be made to University Cashiers Office and may be made by cash, personal check, money order, or traveler's checks.

Connection Cable: The subscriber is responsible for providing the cable from the wall to the TV. This can be purchased from the University Bookstore, Radio Shack, K-Mart, Roses, Wal-Mart etc.

Converter Box: A converter box for a non-cable-ready television is available at a charge of $10.00 a semester, due at the time of receiving the converter box. The converter box and its components: remote control, cable wire and adapter, must be returned to Communication Technologies upon the last day of the semester. If the box is not returned, a charge of $50.00 will be charged to the student's account and will appear on the University Cashiers Office bill.

Unauthorized Use of Signal: It is a federal offense to receive a cable TV signal for which the owner of such cable does not properly authorize you. It is also an offense to allow another party to gain access to the cable TV signal from your outlet.

This contract only authorizes cable service for the outlet located in the room or apartment referenced on the reverse. Any unauthorized reception discovered by the University will be traced back to the source, and both sides will be deemed to be in violation of federal law.

Any Principal Subscriber who is suspected of violating this contract will be subject to investigation and possible prosecution by Public Safety and may suffer permanent loss of cable TV service, Residential Housing privileges, or both. The Communication Technologies Office reserves the right to inspect the integrity of its outlets.

Terms and Conditions are subject to change without prior notice.

08/13/08